CONCERNING THE GAME.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

By "Wideawake."

Lost or Strayed, a Paralysing Finish, once supposed to have been the property of Essendon. Frequently heard of several weeks ago, when, in some quarters, it was characterised as hair-raising on everybody but bald-headed spectators; expected to have been recovered at Carlton, but proved to have been Completely Lost. Anyone hearing of its whereabouts, please communicate with head-quarters, East Melbourne, before to-day, as it is urgently needed.

Not only will a paralysing finish be required by the 'Dons to-day. On last Saturday's form what they are in need of is a good beginning, and better going from thence onward. If one had not seen them doing remarkably fine work this season he would probably have thought that they knew very little about football.

* * *

The Mighty Essendon! Carlton drew their fangs at the start, and made them look like hacks. Yes, Mighty Essendon were Mightily badly walloped.

* * *

They were not seen as a dangerous rival at any stage of the game. It was a bash in the eye for their barrackers; it was indeed a knock-out, a rout, a debacle—anything you like to call it.

* * *

Only two men on Essendon's side showed anything like brilliance, taking the game right through. The others were much below form. On the other hand, Carlton had a whole firmament of stars.

Had Carlton shot straighter, they would have had a lead that would have been considerably more of a crusher than the 18 points that separated the scores at half-time.

* * *

It is unnecessary to say more of the play to give absentees an idea of what it was like than to state: It was Carlton here, Carlton there, Carlton everywhere, and Essendon nowhere.

* * *

While Carlton were happy and contented in their room during the interval, Mr. E. P. Kennedy, their vice-president, remarked to Jack Wells, "Show them that we have the paralysing finish to-day, Jack." "Good idea, boys," remarked the captain. "That's what we will do." And, just by way of demonstration, Carlton slapped up four goals against Essendon's one in the closing term.

* * *

Essendon's kicking in after the behinds were scored could not have been worse. Twice the faulty kicks were responsible for Carlton scoring—once a goal and once a behind. Note the difference this afternoon.

* * *

I must not omit to state that Essendon were handicapped by injury to Belcher and Busbridge, but they were hopelessly beaten before this pair went to grass. Belcher pulled up lame in the early part of the third quarter, and went out of the ruck up forward, but his crippled condition did not prevent him scoring the only two goals registered by the 'Dons in the last two quarters.

A feeling of general and genuine regret was shown when Busbridge went down. He leaped for the mark and got it, but on landing twisted his knee, and was unable to take his kick. He walked a few paces and then sank to the ground. On being carried in an outburst of warm cheering was sent out to him from all round the ring. Buzzy had been the bright, particular star of Essendon, and played as fine a game as ever he has given in the service of the Dons. The spectators viewed it as distinctly unfortunate that he was hurt just within a few minutes of the final bell.

* * *

I have seen much better umpiring than that in the Essendon-Carlton match.

The trip of the Melbourne team to Tasmania was enjoyable enough as a trip, but it did not tend to improve the quality of their football. South Melbourne got back their own on Saturday with a big bit to spare. They did not give the reds a look in, and 13 goals 8 behinds to 8 behinds was a fearful drubbing. It is many a year since Melbourne made such a miserable show. In one match last year they failed to get a goal against Essendon, but even on that occasion they scored one behind more than on Saturday. Their supporters were very disappointed with the display against South, whose barrackers were delighted by the all-round excellence of their men. On hearing of the defeat of Essendon they shouted, "What ho for next week's (to-day's) match! Essendon's scalps are ours."

* * *

The match at Victoria Park was of too scrambling a nature. It was a packed game from beginning to end.

* * *

Seldom have I witnessed such poor kicking by senior teams as in this match. The ball appeared to be hardly inflated enough, but still that was no excuse for such wretched kicking. "Grubbers" were the order of the day.

* * *

Attempts at short passing went astray, and, as said, most of the kicking in all parts of the field by both sides could hardly have been worse.

Saints looked like winning up till the last quarter, when the Victoria Park lads ran all over them. On the merits of the play, Saints should have had a fair lead at three-quarters, but showed poor judgment.

* * *

On the other hand, the magpies, notwithstanding a weakened team, kept pegging away, and ran their opponents off their legs in the final gallop.

* * *

The Richmond-University match was a most one-sided affair. The 'Varsity boys have not been able to get going this season. They had hopes of being able to gather in the fruits of victory at Richmond, but the home team fairly bolted, and beat them everywhere.

* * *

The latest victims to acknowledge the superiority of Geelong on the Geelong ground are Fitzroy. The height and dash of the Pivot lads were altogether too good for Fitzroy, and the latter returned to Melbourne a soundly beaten team.

* * *

In May last Fitzroy defeated Geelong, who, on the whole, have not played such irresistible games on metropolitan fields as they have shown at home, where they have a fine record of victories to their credit, the teams they have conquered there being St. Kilda, Melbourne, Collingwood, University, Carlton and Fitzroy. In Melbourne, Fitzroy, South Melbourne, St. Kilda and Carlton have lowered the colours of the seashiders, who have won only two of their matches in Melbourne—Richmond and Essendon having been defeated by them. Nobody will begrudge Geelong their place among the final four, or the absolute premier-ship, I might add.

* * *

The match on Saturday was marred to some extent by the showery weather. There was too much scrimmaging, though the play was by no means confinied to that method, for there were at times bright, breezy footwork, in which Geelong prevailed. Fitzroy were not as much at sea in the rain as were their opponents, and they struggled desperately, in the last quarter especially. But Geelong swamped them with goals, and in surprisingly quick time they booted four and won well.

Goals at Collingwood were scored in the following order:—Woodcock, Sellars, Wilkinson, Rowan, Cockram, Sellars, Sellars, Martyn, Wilkinson, Morrissey, Cockram, Gilchrist, Cockram, Cockram.

Alex. Eason was in the wars on Saturday. He ricked his ankle early in the game, and in the final quarter received a crack on the jaw which made him groggy. They carried him off the field, but the injury was not serious.

M. Gotz, Carlton.

Jim McHale gave a masterful exhibition for the 'Woodsmen, his dashes from the centre in the last quarter being irresistible. Gibb, who retains his form in a wonderful manner, was easily the best of the wing men, beating Hansen all day.

Woods, a new man for the students did very well for his first game. Secretary Gerald Brosnan, than whom there is no better judge, considers Woods one of the finest kickists he has seen, and on Saturday his opinion was amply justified.

Essendon have decided to donate 25 guineas towards the proposed testimonial to W. Busbridge, who has definitely retired from football. Subscription lists have been issued, and the committee intend to make it a huge success.

Spectators at the East Melbourne ground to-day will have an opportunity of contributing towards the monster testimonial inaugurated by Essendon to mark the retirement from the game of their famous half-back, Busbridge, one of the fairest men that ever graced the football field. It is hoped that the fund will reach large proportions. The committee have already voted 25 guineas to start it.

Everyone will be sorry to hear of such a manly footballer giving up the game, but it must be admitted that the big fellow has had wretched luck in the matter of accidents.

MEN OF THE TIME.

PLAYERS AND PEOPLE TALKED ABOUT.

By "Chatterer."

Dave Smith's name was mentioned at Carlton on Saturday. An Essendonian expressed the opinion that Smith would be heard of more often in Melbourne if playing for Essendon now than he is with the cricketers in England. "We could do with a few Dave Smiths after to-day's game," he remarked, in the tones of a despondent barracker.

* * *

Billy Griffith was Essendon's first emergency in the Carlton match. The veteran would have been of far greater service than many who wore the uniform.

* * *

Arthur ("Shooter") Ford, ex-secretary of the Carlton club, was a spectator at the big match on Saturday. He came from Echuca specially to see Carlton beat Essendon. He tells me that there are some fine players at Echuca, so possibly we shall see an Echucan or two in the Carlton colours in the sweet bye-and-bye.

* * *

Fine sporting spirit was shown by Lou Armstrong at Carlton during the first quarter. Wee McGregor was just taking a mark as Armstrong was dashing up with a full head of steam on. Seeing that McGregor was safe for the ball, Armstrong swerved to avoid running him down. It was the act of a sportsman. Many a player would have dashed clean bang into him in the circumstances, without doing any good to himself, his side, or his opponent. Cheers for the Essendonian.

* * *

You need fine, telling kicks in a man 'tween goals, but McLeod, of Essendon, did not fill the bill on this respect at Carlton. Bert Armstrong is badly missed there.

* * *

Jim Marchbank was not in form against Essendon. In the second quarter he went up for a mark on his own. He missed the ball, which hit him flop in the face, and James winked and shook his head as if his eyes were filled with sawdust from his mill.

* * *

I was near a crowd of barrackers at Carlton, and the music of their voices was extraordinary. You would have thought that the premiership depended on the result of the match. "If we don't win the flag we're satisfied with beating Essendon," said one. And then another roared, "Where's the Essendon death knock?" A third bellowed like a bull his praises of Challis, Gardiner, Bruce, Wells, McGregor, Valentine, Wilson, Green and Andy McDonald.

* * *

Those—and they were not a few—of the Carlton supporters who expressed disappointment at Challis' form in the first two or three matches are satisfied that their judgment was at fault. Now they are among the most enthusiastic barrackers for that brilliant half-forward. And they stamp him as a champion. He played like a champion against Essendon, pulled himself out of tight corners, swung the ball into position, measuring his kicks almost to the inch. He was superb, and if there were a cup for the best player on the ground, Challis would have won the chalice.

* * *

The order of scoring at Carlton:—Gardiner, Kirby, Challis, Green, Kirby, Valentine, Wells, Moran, Belcher, Moran, Gardiner, Cochrane, Gardiner, Belcher.

ADDRESS

54 MARKET ST., MELBOURNE

Lal McLennan, while honeymooning at Lorne, intended to run across to Geelong and play for Fitzroy, but on Friday he sent a telegram intimating that the roads were too heavy for travelling. It occupied four hours in covering fourteen miles on the way down.

* * *

Cockram was put out of action at Collingwood in a peculiar manner on Saturday. Standing to Jory's mark, the latter kicked low, the ball striking Cockram with plenty of force on the back of the neck. The Collingwood man fell like a log, and it was some minutes before he was able to take part in the game again.

* * *

Where is the great Brereton, Melbourne's champion forward? asked the South Melbourne barrackers, with a football onlooker's irony in their tones. He took one fine mark in the early stages of the game, but Son Thomas saw to it that that was the one and only time. He completely eclipsed Brereton by his brilliance, and was responsible wholly for the absence of that name from the list of Melbourne goal-kickers. Thomas was a dazzler.

* * *

Harris made very few mistakes on St. Kilda's back lines. Lever and Eicke, with Harris, formed a powerful trio, whom Collingwood forwards were never able to master until the closing stages of the game.

* * *

Baxter was off his game against his old comrades on Saturday, and Thomas' spell of a couple of weeks appeared to affect his play somewhat, for he was not nearly so consistent as usual. Nehill, either wing or forward, was much in evidence, and Woodcock and Cumberland formed a great ruck, with little assistance from the rovers.

* * *

Acknowledged at Geelong that Orchard was the pick of the basket. They say that he never gave such a great display of football as that shown in the tussle against Fitzroy.

* * *

Marshall was consistently successful with the hit out from the ruck to Heinz, his rover, who was a clever and nippy 'ball man.

* * *

Sadler and Green were 'Wood's most valuable units in defence, the former being as tricky as ever, but inclined to run too much. Laxton, Rowan, Cockram and Gray all helped materially towards the magpies' victory.

The BEST and only the BEST !

WHAT CHAMPIONS REQUIRE.

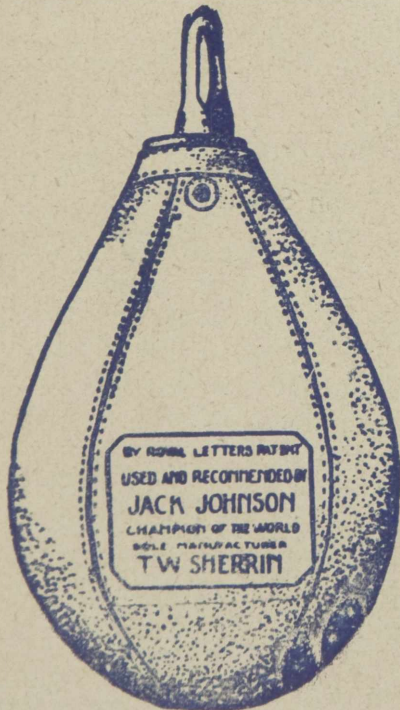

It is only natural that for the great and glorious Australian game the best of Australian goods should be manufactured by the best Australian maker.

T.W. SHERRIN

Acknowledged by all sporting institutions and champions,

BOXING, CRICKET, and FOOTBALL,

as the leading manufacturer of Australia. Testimonials as to the superiority of his sporting goods have been unhesitatingly given by the world's champions who have visited Australia from time to time during the last twenty years.

JACK JOHNSON, the world's champion pugilist, pronounces Sherrin's boxing gloves and punching balls better than any he has used in England or America. And the champion has used many in fighting his way to fame.

DICK LEE, who was for years the champion goal-kick, bears testimony to the superiority of the Sherrin ball.

The Footballers' Favorite.

The footballer has yet to be found who does not give the palm to the Sherrin ball as the best that can be kicked. The "Kangaroo" brand on each is the trade mark registered throughout the Commonwealth.

League clubs prefer the "Kangaroo" brand, and no club is considered complete without its supply of Sherrin's best.

THE AUSTRALASIAN FOOTBALL COUNCIL.

ever since the Interstate matches have been played have insisted on the use of the "Kangaroo" brand ball, and in the great carnival in Adelaide last year the pleasure of the players was increased by the knowledge that they were using balls from the Sherrin factory.

SHERRIN'S ATHLETIC GOODS

have won distinction at international and Interstate industrial exhibitions, among the awards being the Prize Medal and First Order of Merit in Adelaide, 1881; First Order of Merit, Melbourne, 1879-80; and the Diploma of Merit, Centennial Exhibition, 1888-89.

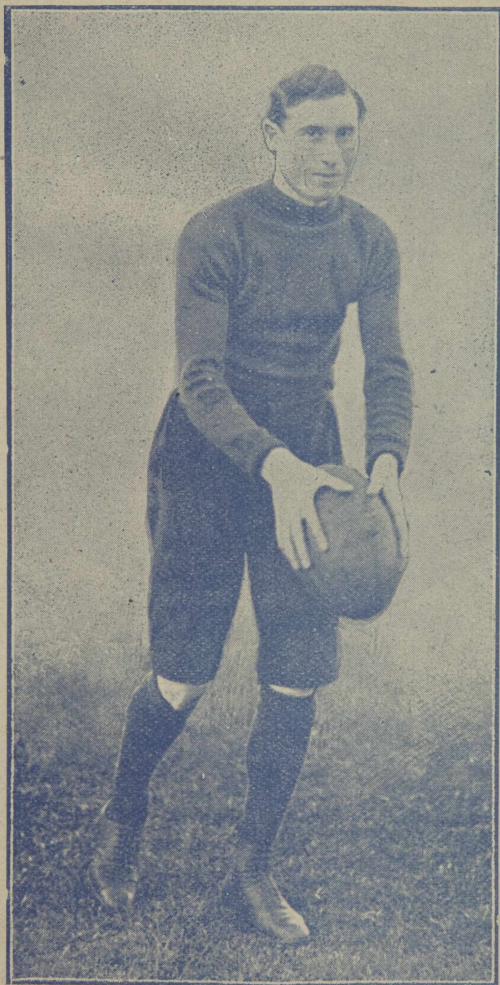

Obtainable at all the leading Sporting-goods Warehouses throughout Australia.

Scott pleased the critics at Geelong, and Fitzroy's committee is satisfied with his work in his first match. He is game, and has a good turn of speed.

Naismith's defensive work against South Melbourne was as fine as any-

Reeves, playing on the back line, which position seems to suit him, was easily the best on Richmond's side, with the burly James also doing magnificent work. Little Ellingsen (who got four goals), Oliver, Burns, Thorpe, Gibson thing he has yet shown. He played football; the others were outclassed.

Richmond made no mistake in inducing Moffatt to throw in his lot with them. He comes from the Carlton District, and created a favourable impression on his first appearance.

and Maybury also played sparkling football.

'Varsity's stars last week were Jack Brake, their fine follower, and Bert Hurrey, in the centre. Martin was Al on the wing, and Kelly, Little, Willis and Trood were the best of the others.

THE FOOTBALL RECORD.

For two matches T. Cockram will not be qualified to play for Collingwood. The League outed him on Wednesday night on the complaint of McNamara, boundary umpire, who alleged that he struck Harry Hattam, the St. Kilda back man, on Saturday last.

A graceful compliment was paid by Mr. A. McCracken to Jim Sharp on Wednesday evening, when he appeared at the League rooms to watch the proceedings on behalf of T. Cockram, against whom a complaint had been laid. Jim Sharp was injured in the St. Kilda match on May 11th, when his leg was broken. Mr. McCracken said everybody was pleased to see him about again. Mr. Sharp was a characteristically fair player on the field, and would doubtless be equally fair in the field of argument.

THE VERY LATEST.

Fitzroy will have Willoughby back in the team to-day. P. Heron and Wells will also be playing. Scott, H. Heron and Campbell have been omitted from last week's team.

Lane and Cope will play for Melbourne to-day, Strong and Sykes standing down.

Busbridge and Kirkwood are not playing for Essendon to-day. Their places have been filled by Ex-Captain Griffith and Martin. Griffith will play full back.

South Melbourne have made no alteration in last Saturday's team.

Collingwood have three changes in their team to-day. Rowell, Hughes and Minogue will don the colours, those omitted being Gray, Cockram and Seddon.

Clancy resumes his place on the wing for Carlton to-day. Moran has not been picked.

St. Kilda will be without Baxter, Martyn and Jory this afternoon. They hope to strengthen the team by the inclusion of White, McKenzie and Best.

Ellingsen, Bennie and Love are out of Richmond's team to-day, and Ohlsen, Danks and Sheehan will play instead.

Dalton having gone away, Collins will play on the wing for Geelong to-day. Watt and Freeman are in again. Those standing down are Gray, Dalton and Fairbairn.
